DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1 and 6-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Macher et al. (US 6,286,983 B1).

Re claim 1: Macher discloses an electroluminescent light band for vehicles having an electroluminescent device (1 in Fig. 1) including exchangeable pattern regions (32, 39 and 40 in Fig. 2) and redirection-displaying regions (the directional arrow portions of 4 in Fig. 2), and at least one front pattern sheet (13 in Fig. 1) placed over the exchangeable pattern (5) and being a thin material with a translucent pattern (col. 4, line 46+).

Re claims 6-7: Macher discloses that the redirection-displaying region includes a plurality of arrow-shaped sub luminescent areas (See the three arrow-shaped sub areas of 4 in Fig. 2) which are used to display turn-right and turn-left indications.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2875

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 4-5 and 8-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Macher et al. (US 6,286,983 B1).

Re claim 4: Macher does not disclose a plurality of sub luminescent areas of the exchangeable region. However, Macher teaches that "it is possible to mount advertising messages or specially designed informative text on the vehicle (col. 6, lines 24-32)". It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Macher's exchange pattern region to include a plurality of luminescent areas in order to display advertising text messages.

Re claims 5 and 8: Macher discloses that the sub luminescent areas can flickeringly light simultaneously (col. 5, lines 62-65).

Re claim 9: Macher does not disclose that the turn-right and turn-left indications light simultaneously when the brake of the car is suddenly stepped on. However, Macher teaches various types of indication lights such as additional brake light and a reversing lights. Further, Macher discloses various types of light emitting arrangement (col. 5, lines 59++). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Macher's turn-left and turn-right indications to light simultaneously when the brake of the car is suddenly stepped on in order to add an addition function.

6. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Macher as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Tipke (US 5,974,711).

Art Unit: 2875

Re claim 2: Macher does not disclose a plurality of miniature suction cup. However, Tipke teaches a plurality of suction cups (14 in Fig. 3) for the purpose of attaching the sign to the window. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Macher's electroluminescent light band to include Tipke's suction cups in order to attach the electrolumnescent light band to the window.

7. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Macher et al. as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Murasko (US 6,424,088 B1).

Re claim 3: Macher does not disclose an anti-UV protection layer. However, Murasko teaches an anti-UV protection layer (22 in Fig. 1 and col. 3, lines 14-16) for the purpose of protecting phosphor layer. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Macher's eletroluminescent light band to include anti-UV protection layer as taught by Murasko in order to protect the electroluminescent light band.
